TWO NATION VACATION DESTINATIONS

Seattle

Known for its breathtaking beauty and vibrant culture, Seattle is home to many museums, restaurants and Pike Place Market, one of the oldest year-round public farmers markets in the U.S.

Victoria

Located on the edge of Vancouver Island, Victoria is accessible from Seattle via the Victoria Clipper. The perfect mix of modern tradition, Victoria offers something for everyone. Enjoy a traditional Afternoon Tea, visit The Butchart Gardens, or even hop on a bike or wine tour in the historic capital city of British Columbia.

Vancouver

Vancouver is British Columbia's largest city. Visit the Capilano Suspension Bridge, explore the farmers market and art community on Granville Island or go shopping in this metropolitan center of activity.

Whistler

Located 75 miles north of Vancouver, Whistler is best known for its winter sports including world-class skiing and snowboarding and was home to several 2010 Winter Olympic events. One of three villages, Whistler Village offers unique shopping and exquisite dining along with a vibrant nightlife.

The ultimate way to experience the Pacific Northwest!

Travel between Seattle and Victoria with two of our region's unique forms of transportation: cruise and seaplane. One direction, travel through the Strait of Juan de Fuca on the Victoria Clipper, soaking in the surrounding breathtaking views of our Olympic and Cascade mountains. You may even come across a pod of orca whales or other marine wildlife. Cruise for less than three hours before arriving in the heart of Victoria's Inner Harbour.

The other direction, take in fabulous aerial views of the Pacific Northwest aboard a Kenmore Air seaplane. Soar a few hundred feet off the water as you get a true bird's-eye view of the region. Arrive at your destination after a swift 45 minute flight. Explore Seattle and Victoria on your own or add on a fun activity to your trip. A fantastic way to authentically experience travel around the area or give visiting family and friends the experience of a lifetime!

SEATTLE GRAY WHALE WATCHING PLUS LANGLEY, WHIDBEY ISLAND

March - April | Saturday & Sunday

Each spring, gray whales move north through Puget Sound on the way to their summer feeding grounds. Catch a rare opportunity to see these magnificent 35 ton creatures along their journey. Our expert onboard naturalist will help spot the whales as well as sea lions and other marine and bird life along the way. Trip also includes a 2 hour stopover in the beautiful waterfront village of Langley on Whidbey Island. See website for details.

CLIPPER'S SAN JUAN ISLANDS ORCA WHALE & SEALIFE SEARCH

May - October, 2018

The San Juan Islands are world-renowned for both the resident pods of orca whales, as well as the migratory pods (even humpbacks!) that feed in the area. The Islands are also teeming with other wildlife ranging from eagles and seals to porpoises and sea lions. Whale sightings are guaranteed. Our day trip departs at Pier 69 in downtown Seattle and includes a 2.5 hour stop in historic Friday Harbor. We can also customize your perfect San Juan Islands vacation package or day trip, including transportation, hotel accommodations, and of course whale watching.
