San Juan Island

SEA KAYAKING

EXPLORE A BOUNTY OF SEA ADVENTURES & HARBOR TOWN RICHES

The 100-million-year-old San Juan Islands are home to stunning scenery and a flurry of fun activities ranging from hiking to kayaking. The area is world-renowned for both the salmon-eating resident and mammal-eating "Biggs" pods of orca whales that feed in the area.

Clipper Vacations offers the ONLY summer whale watching service between downtown Seattle and San Juan Island. Our popular Whale and Sealife Search excursion includes an onboard science-based expert naturalist to help guide the tour and answer questions.

SAN JUAN ISLAND OVERNIGHT 2 Days/1 Night

An overnight or extended stay on San Juan Island is a must-do! Begin your adventure with a scenic cruise through the waters of the Salish Sea, keeping an eye out for orcas and more!

Enjoy the rest of the day and the next morning in Friday Harbor, a historic seaport paradise filled with unique shops and restaurants. Drop by the San Juan Islands Museum of Art or learn even more about the animals that call the Salish Sea home at The Whale Museum.

Rent a moped or bicycle and explore the peaceful, quaint town of Roche Harbor. Kayak around the serene and dramatic limestone shoreline or sip local brews and spirits at San Juan Island Distillery.

Conclude your journey with a relaxing San Juan Clipper cruise back to Seattle.
